

Course Title	International Criminal Law
Faculty	Faculty of Law and Business Studies Dr Lazar Vrkić
Study Programme	Law
Professor	Professor Emeritus Milo Bošković		Contact (e-mail address)
Code		Course level	Graduate (MA)	ECTS credits	8
Description (max. 100 words)	This course is aimed at enabling students to gain both general and specific understanding of international criminal law, including the basic principles, institutions and standards of international criminal material law and international criminal procedure law. The course is designed to help students get a better understanding of international criminal courts and tribunals, focusing on their structure and jurisdiction. Also, students are given the opportunity to gain knowledge and skills necessary for the proper practical application of international and domestic laws and regulations concerning international criminal law.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	After completing this course students can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the sources, subject-matter, structure and function of international criminal law • understand basic terms and concepts of international criminal law • distinguish between domestic and international jurisdiction • explore and critically analyse professional literature and normative sources of international criminal law.
Semester	4		Maximum number of visiting students
Language	Serbian		Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES	