

Course Title	Private International Law
Faculty	Faculty for Law and Business Studies Dr Lazar Vrkić
Study Programme	Law
Professor	Associate professor Božidar Jeličić		Contact (e-mail address)	bozidarj@bitsyu.net
Code		Course level	Undergraduate (BA)	ECTS credits	8
Description (max. 100 words)	The objective of the course is to offer students general and specific knowledge of international private law. They are to understand the meaning, importance and roles of international private law, to know its basic principles, standards and sources, to gain further insight into collision norms and their functioning in the specificity of civic judicial proceedings with an element of foreign nationality, into rights of foreigners and settlement of disputes through international trade arbitrations. Students are also to acquire specific legal skills for implementation and interpretation of rules in the field of international private law.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students now know about the sources of international private law, having acquired knowledge of the concepts and basic institutes thereof, understanding its importance and role. They are capable of collecting and critically analysing relevant professional literature and normative materials in the field of international private law.
Semester	6		Maximum number of visiting students
Language	Serbian		Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES	