

Course Title	Public International Law
Faculty	Faculty of Law and Business Studies Dr Lazar Vrkatić
Study Programme	Law
Professor	Associate professor Božidar Jeličić		Contact (e-mail address)	bozidarj@bitsyu.net
Code		Course level	Undergraduate (BA)	ECTS credits	8
Description (max. 100 words)	The objective of the course is to offer its students general and specific knowledge about international public law, to make them acquainted with the origin and sources of international public law, ways of regulating international relations, helping them to understand the meaning, importance and role of international public law in international relations, to accept its basic concepts, principles and standards, to understand the relationship of national and international law in the public sphere. Students also learn about the types of legal consequences due to neglect of the rules of international law.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students now know about the sources of international public law, having understood the concepts, principles and standards thereof. They know the importance and role of international public law in international relations. They are able to collect and analyse relevant professional literature and normative materials in this field.
Semester	5		Maximum number of visiting students
Language	Serbian		Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES	